- VII. Business (Consideration and Possible Action): Madison Williams Azamy from Active Minds moved to approve the following business action items. Claire Park from the Anthropology Club seconded. Motion passed unanimously with no abstentions.
 - a. Speaker called for a vote for the ratification of Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlan (M. E. Ch. A.) Club. Vote passed unanimously with no abstentions. M. E. Ch. A. is now a ratified Modesto Junior College Club.
- VIII. Club Reports (Reports were given in no particular order.)

Musicians' Guild/Tony Garcia – No current plans to give members a chance to focus on finals. Club will be promoting the Musician Guild Live fundraiser event on West Campus starting next semester. The event will help students practice their musical skills and network with musicians outside of MJC. Any students interested in participating should contact Professor Travis Silvers. No meetings set for Spring 2024.

Future Engineers of MJC/Messiah Afzalyar – Meetings: Every Friday from 2:30 to 5 p.m. in the Innovation center in Yosemite Hall, room 214. Currently working the Great Valley Museum to collaborate with others MJC clubs to use their resources to develop products to sell at the museum. Afzalyar encouraged any student, regardless of their STEM knowledge, to join the club next semester. Hope to have more fundraisers, trips, and more next semester.

Computer Science Club/Adrean Cajigas – Final meeting of semester was November 30 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the CAT building, room 231 on East campus. Discussed with Club advisor the Lennox operating system and its benefits, drawbacks, history, and use in the industry. Spring 2024 dates are being discussed—hope to keep the same time (Thursdays at 6:30pm).

Business Club/Kirill Kovalenko – Workshop with Business club went well. Guest speaker, Charlie N., shared his experience in bringing his product to market and offered students opportunities to collaborate with his company. Final meeting of semester was on November 29 in which they reflected on this semester and how they can improve. Plans for next semester include inviting more guests speakers, visiting more exciting companies, and other activities. Spring 2024 meetings: Wednesdays from 3 to 4:15 p.m, hopefully in Founders Hall, room 136.

Active Minds/Madison Williams-Azamy – Final meeting of the semester was December 5 in which elections for the Spring 2024 term were held. Currently trying to find guests speakers in the mental health field to increase community awareness and involvement. Discussing Spring 2024 dates.

Anthropology Club/Claire Park – Final meeting of the semester was a movie night on December 7, which had a great turnout. Ended their See's Candies fundraiser, which went well.

Geology Club/Hannah Vissez – Final meeting of the semester was November 30 in the Science Community Center. Cleaned out the lab and prepared the space for next semester. Currently discussing dates for Spring 2024 meetings and activities.

Visual Arts Club/Philip Johnson – Helped decorate the MJC float for the Christmas Parade, which won the Nonprofit Award. Finished all the meetings for the Fall semester and will resume in the spring. Contact Chelsea Gilmore with any questions or for information about the club.

Intersarsity Christian Club/Evelyn Ramirez – Final meeting was December 6 in which students made snow globes. Discussing dates for the Spring 2024 meetings and activities.

Video Game Development Club/Eva Anguiano – Finished the semester game, but the final product was different than expectations. Nonetheless, the club gained and fine-tuned their skills, and had fun. Had their final meeting in which they made Christmas video games in under an hour. Currently discussing dates for Spring 2024 semester meetings and activities. The club has high hopes for spring!

MJC Dungeons and Dragons Club/Nicholas Hodges – Final meeting of the semester will be on December 8 at 3 p.m. Spring 2024 meetings will be at the same time: Fridays from 3:30 to 6 p.m. Still working to change their club's name to "Tabletop Games" to denote the inclusion of games in addition to Dungeons and Dragons, including poker and war hammer. Planning fundraisers for next semester.

M.E.Ch.A./Juan Diego Gonzalez – Introduced himself and the club, and shared their goals for the club: uplifting Mexican-American MJC students and connecting students to their history and heritage. Currently discussing dates for Spring 2024 meetings, fundraisers, and other activities.

ACE Unity Club/Lupita – Concluded their meetings for semester. Currently discussing dates for Spring 2024 meetings, fundraisers, and other activities.

Young Farmer/Alyssa Partner – Concluded their fall semester meetings on December 7, in which they built gingerbread houses, held officer elections, and socialized. Newly elected officers will be discussing dates for Spring 2024 meetings, fundraisers, and other activities on their Officer Retreat.

Respiratory Care Club/Lourdes Vargas – Just concluded their club fundraisers through which they raised a total of $430. Plans for Spring 2024 semester include welcoming new Respiratory Care students to the club, movie nights, and continued fundraisers. Considering a collaboration with the Business Club to equip members that are graduating MJC with skills for job searching.

Cheer Club/Aubri Collins – Spring 2024 meeting times will stay the same: every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. Have been attending the men and women's games throughout the semester and will attend one tonight.

American Sign Language Club/Ghost Eliason – Concluded all their meetings for the semester. Final meeting was December 6 in which they joined an ASL class with games to recruit for and promote the club. Will be re-electing officers for Spring 2024 because some officers have stepped down.

MJC Science Club/Christian Robles – Concluded all the meetings for the Fall semester and will resume in the Spring. Spring 2024 meetings: Tuesday from 5 to 6 p.m. at the Science Community Center, room 305. Plans for next semester include attending MJC Science Nights, field trips, and fundraisers.

- IX. Chair Report-May Lee, ICC Speaker: Asked for opinions on whether to continue alternating campuses for the ICC meetings in the spring. Due to transportation, convenience, and other reasons, the majority preferred to meet only on the East campus for ICC monthly meetings.
- X. ASMJC Executives Report-Maria Jasso, ASMJC Director of Student Relations: Introduced herself as the new ASMJC Director and declared her excitement for working with clubs. Had the last FLOW of the semester on December 6. Instead of passing out vouchers, ASMJC had food trucks serve 200 students. Will continue FLOW in the spring on January 17 on both campus from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. (or until supplies last). Cram Night was December 7 in the East Campus library from 6 to 10 p.m. ASMJC provided snacks, sweets, and support for over 150 students.
- XI. Advisor Report & Discussion
 - a. Welcomed M.E.Ch.A. Club and praised them for their endurance with their ratification.
 - b. The first Spring 2024 ICC meeting will be February 9 because the semester starts after the second Friday. The remaining dates are March 8 and April 12. All ICC meetings will be from 1 to 2 30 p.m. Clubs are required to send a representative to the ICC meetings. Clubs that miss two consecutive meetings will be given an inactive status.
 - c. Clubs should not be meeting during finals week to respect members' final schedule.
 - d. Thanked everyone for their hard work this semester, congratulated clubs and their fundraisers, and wished luck for each student's finals. Contact Program Specialist (Carmen De La Cruz) with questions.
- XII. Adjournment: Juan Diego Gonzalez from M.E.Ch.A. Club moved to adjourn the meeting. Ghost Eliason from American Sign Language Club seconded. Motion passed unanimously with no abstentions. Meeting adjourned at 1:32 p.m.
